CUBA'S NEW GOVERNOR

Captain General De Campos Arrives at Santiago.

ENTHUSIASTIC GREETING.

A Wealthy Chicagoan Just Arrived from Cuba Declares That the "Uprisings" Are Fomented by Spanish Officers Themselves, to Further Personal Ambitions.

Santiago de Cuba, April 17.-A few minutes before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the distant booming of guns was heard to the south and all the residents of this city knew that Captain General Martinez de Campos was passing in by the Castillo del Morro, which guards the water approach to this city, and which was saluting the "Pacificador de Cuba." At 5:. . the steamer on which he had traveled from Caimanera turned the sharp bend in the bay and appeared to the immense crowd that lined the shore in front

All places of business were closed and the town wore a holiday appearance. The streets, particularly those in the vicinity of the plaza, opposite which the palace of the governor of the province is situated, were crowded with ladies, a most unusual thing at that early hour. As Marshal de Campos was driven slowly up the rather steep street that leads to the plaza the crowd greeted him with enthusiastic cheers, and acclaimed him as "the noble peacemaker." The arrival of Marshal de Campos caused great rejoicing in all classes of society, for they are confident that he will restore peace in the island in a short time. He knows perfectly well the difficulties he 14 bound to meet with, but it is believed that with his thorough knowledge of Cuban character, gained by his former experience in the island, he will be able to grasp the critical situation and prevail upon the rebels to withdraw or drive them from the field. All political parties are willing to aid his efforts to re-establish

AN UNPREJUDICIAL OPINION.

Cuban Uprisings Fomented by Spanish Officers for Personal Glory.

CHICAGO, April 17.-H, O. Stone, a wealthy Chicagoan, who, with his wife, has just returned from a tour through Central America and Cuba, says that he believes the numerous Cuban insurrections are stirred up by Spanish officers for their own glory. "I believe that these insurrections are stirred up by the Spanish officers themselves," said Mr. Stone. "It means more glory and stars on their shoulders. It is hard to find rapid revolutionists, and the 'outrages' written of at such length about imprisoned 'American citizens' arc, as far as we could learn, in cases of naturalized Cubans. Almost every native eigarmaker working in tobacco factories at from $3 to $5 a day sees aside one day's pay cach week for the Cuban cause. This goes to leaders, who are simply robbing the ignorant and oppressed.

'It is commonly known there that the leader of the handitti, called the 'King of Cuba,' with a following of about 5,000 of every kind of robbers and desperate men, would not be captured or killed by the Spanish government, if such a thing were possible. This man is a marauder and a robber, and cares nothing for the freedom of Cuba, and on the other hand is a means of much revenue to the Spanish government. Every planter is compelled for protection of life and property to hire from ten to a hundred Spanish troops, for which he pays $6 a month and board. This amounts to more than enough to support the Spanish army in Cuba, and it is not likely that such a state of affairs is at all contrary to the wishes of the powers that be. The motto is, 'No bandit, no hiring of troops,' and is the secret of a great deal of these recent troubles."

More Verdicts Against the D., L. and W. TRENTON, April 17.-Andrew Roalefs, of the Garfield National bank, of New York, who was injured in the Hackensack meadows railroad accident in January, 1894, yesterday recovered a verdict in the United States court of $7,500 against the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company. He sued for $10,000. Mrs. Lillian Clark, of Basking Ridge, N. J., who sued for $50,000 for the loss of her husband, who was killed in the same accident, got a verdict of $5,000.

Clothmakers on Strike.

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.-About 1,000 employes of the cloth and blanket manufacturing firm of Seville, Schofield & Co., of Manayunk, quit work yesterday be cause of the firm's refusal to restore a 15 per cent, reduction in wages. If the men refuse to return to work at once about 50% more employes will be thrown out. The highest sum now carned by the men is $6.25 per week.

The American Horse Won.

NEWMARKET, Eng., April 17.—The Newmarket craven meeting of 1895 opened yesterday with brilliant weather, but a small attendance. The principal event was the Crawford plate handicap, which was wonby an American horse Willie Simms was on Richard Croker's Eau de Gallie, and made the run throughout. The boy rode in masterly style, and won with comparative case.

NEW JERSEY'S PRINTING BILLS. Kival Houses Paid to Refrain from Putting in Bids.

TRENTON, April 17.-The senate investigating committee hearing yesterday was devoted to the question of state printing, which was under consideration when the committee adjourned last Friday. Otto Heinz was recalled to the stand. He testifled that Lawyer Frank McDermett, who appeared as his counsel on Friday, had not been employed to so act, and that Me-Dermott had rendered his firm no e vice except to get through the legislature a bill, for which he charged $2,005.

Mr. Heinz, when questioned as to his failure to bid for printing state reports in German in 1853, said he refrained from doing so in consideration of $500, received from John L. Kuser, who got the contract. Mr. Heinz swore that he afterwards returned to Kuser $250 of this money because Kuser complained that he had not got all the work he expected to under his bid. Charles S. Robinson, of Princeton, who bid low on two reports in 1563 testified that be withdrew his bids and that he got the printing of one of the books from Kuser at the higher price of seventy-six cents, his bid having been forty-five cents, and that he got $30) in consideration of giving up the other bid of fifty-five cents. Editor Krautter, of the Newark Deutsche Zeitung. testified that the same year Kuser paid him $300 not to bid. The committee will meet again next Tuesday.

Manitoba Catholics Threatened.

WINNIPEG. April 17.—Nothing since the beginning of the Catholic school struggle in this country has created a greater sen-sation than the announcement of the Carbolic archbishop that those Catholics who henceforth lend their aid and influence to those who would abolish Catholie parochial schools will be excommunicated. Many prominent Catholics have, during the struggle of the church, expressed themselves in favor of a national school system, and among these people the above announcement has created the greatest consternation. At first it was thought to be simply a move on the part of Archbishop Langevin, and done without either the authority of Mgr. Satolli or of the pope, but it is learned positively that Langevin's action is based on au-thority received direct from Rome.

Durant Protests His Innocence.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.-Theodore Durant keeps his nerves under excellent control. During his waking hours he protests his innocence and gives little sign of trepidation, even when undergoing severe ordeals of examination and accusation. His calmness is characterized as coldblooded by physicians. His slumbers, however, are not so peaceful. Since his in-currenation he has not passed an hour in quiet sleep. When he closes his eyes he invariably becomes the victim of nightmare, and grouns and cries in terror. During the inquest yesterday, though damaging evidence was presented against him, he betrayed no cyidence of weakness.

The Silverites in Colorado's Capital

DENVER, April 17 .- The open air meeting addressed last evening by the silver champions was the largest ever assembled in Donver. Ex-Congressman Sibley advised the debasement of partisanship and the elevation of patriotism. Frequent appeals have been made by the gold bugs to the bankers and business men to educate the people in regard to "sound money," but he thought there were so many people needed education in that way that the goldites had a honeless task and one that was daily becoming more so. Mr. Sibley was followed by General Warner. Mr. Sibley left for Pennsylvania last night, owing to the illness of his sister.

Deputy Comptroller Mansur Dead. WASHINGTON, April 17 .- Charles H. Mansur, of Missouri, deputy comptroller of the treasury, died yesterday after an illness of several weeks, during which his death has been daily expected. Mr. Mansur was born in Philadelphia sixty years ago, and removed to Missouri in 1866. There he was elected to various public offices, and served as a Democrat in the Fiftieth, Fifty-first and Fifty-second congresses from the Second Missouri district, being succeeded by U. S. Hall. Soon afterward President

At the time he had a scratch upon one of his legs. Through this the dye in the stocking poisoned the blood, and soon the evil effects were perceptible. Twice the leg has been operated upon, the poisoned flesh being cut away, but no improvement has been noticeable.

An Unfortunate Little Girl.

Death of Hon. Leverett Saltonstall.

THE CAPTURE OF PERRY

The Noted Train Robber Again Behind the Bars.

HE TELLS OF HIS WANDERINGS.

The Fugitive Chuckles Over the Fact That He Was in New York City for Nearly Two Days, and Even Conversed with a

WEEHAWKEN, N. J., April 17.-After ive days and a few hours of dearly bought iberty Oliver Curtis Perry, the daring train robber, who escaped with four others rom the Matteawan Insane asylum last Wednesday night, was captured yesterlay, and is now a prisoner in the Hudson bunty jail awaiting a requisition for his emoval to the New York institution.

Perry was captured by Detective Edward Hifford, of the West Shore road, and Poiceman Bernard McAlcese.of Weehawken. He was standing near a bonfire, with leveral other tramps, as the officers approached, and started to run, but was soon wertaken. When called by name he deaied his identity, declaring that his name was John Martin Soon after Chief Kelly trrived, however, he admitted that he was the much hunted fugitive.

He was taken before Justice Rier, who committed him to await requisition. A lew minutes after he was sent away Keeper James Coyle, of the Matteawan asylum, arrived on a train from Newburgh, where ie was on the hunt of Perry. Coyle is the reeper who captured McGuire and O'Donaell last week

A short time after he had confessed to Chief Kelly the reporters were admitted io see Perry. The latter was brought out of his cell, and sat on the still of a heavily parred window while he told his story. He spoke very intelligently, and showed no agns of insunity. After detailing the nanner of their escape from the asylum, is already published. Perry told of his vanderings. He said:

"I reached the ground first, and as we had made no agreement as to what direction we would take I started to run. It was then 10 o'clock, and one of the outside guards called me to halt, and of course I did not. Then he sicked the dog on me. out I knew too much for him, as I sicked the dog on another fellow who was runaing ahead of me. That night I tramped ill through the Peekskill mountains tione, and I was guided by the east star. "I reached New York on Saturday night

ast. It was about midnight. I spoke to number of policemen, and, although this was risky work, you know a fellow has tot to make a bluff sometimes. My feet roubled me very much, as they were all int and bruised. I asked one policeman where Jerry McCauley's mission was, on Water street. The officer directed me, but t was a long way off, and I walked there.
"Oh, what a roast," said he, smiling, "for the New York police. I was there learly two days, and they did not know t. When I got to the mission house I was heartbroken, tired out, and I felt sure I would get some comfort there, as Mc-Cauley was an ex-convict himself. The nan who opened the door slammed it in ny face, but I went back again three or our times and told him my feet were iore, and that I wanted them treated. He gave me a card to the Chambers Street hospital. He gave me also a nickel for tar fare, and I got on a one horse car and tode over to Hudson street. When I went in I told the doctor that my feet were sore, and he treated me very gruffly. He slapped a lot of vaseline on my feet, over the lirt. I asked him to get me a pan in which to wash my feet, and they would not. I slashed my boots the way you see them, pulled them on, and left the hosital.

"Now, look at me gentlemen," said he. appealingly, "look at the condition I am That's the only thing I am ashamed if. I could have got tools, money, clothing and a gun, but I preferred the disguise of a tramp and the hardships connected with it. I could have gone to my friends, but you see there was no money found on me when arrested. When I left the hospital it was about 11:30 on Sunday morning."

Perry would not tell anything of his movements in New York, except that he tramped around, but instead of answering the questions put to him in this respect he began to tell why he had made the escape. complaining that he had been abused at the asylum. Men, he said, were sometimes held down and jumped on and their ribs broken there.

Coming back to his story of New York, he said he lef the city over the ferry next to Cortlandt street.

"That's the Jersey Central," said he. "This was on Monday morning. I walked to the yard, as I did not want to attract attention. A lady in Jersey City gave me this tie and two pairs of socks. I told her I was poor and a laborer. I walked along the railroad .acks for hours in the dark, and changed my clothes for the ones I am now wearing. When I came to the trestle near the coal cars I saw two fires burning, and I went up there. That was a fatal move on my part, for if I had not gone near the fires they never would have reaght me." He would not tell where or how be got his change or clothes, but he requested the reporters to come and see him at the asy-lum as soon as he would get back there.

Perry will be taken back to the asylum today. The other four convicts who escaped with Perry - Davis, McGuire, O'Donnell and Quigley-are in solitary confinement in the isolation ward. All have recovered from the exposures and privations that they suffered during the time they were at liberty.

British Will Not Bombard Greytown.

LONDON, April 17.-It is stated on good authority that the question of a protest upon the part of the United States against the bombardment of Greytown and the landing of British troops in Nicaragua has never been raised between Great Britain and the United States, so far as the British government is aware. In any case, it is added, the British will not bombard Greytown in the event of Nicaragua refusing to comply with the demands of Great Britain. But steps will be taken to insure the payment of the indemnity demanded by the British government, and the neces-tary orders have been sent to commanders of British warships. Whether these or-ders include the landing of troops is not

Our Government's Interest in the Pending Controversy.

GRESHAM URGES ARBITRATION.

flow the Advance of British Settlers in Venezuela Were Followed by Similar Advances of British Colonial Administration, Regardless of Boundary Lines. WASHINGTON, April 17 .- The only references in the published correspondence of the state department for 1894 touching the Venezuelan boundary dispute are found in two letters addressed by Secretary of State Gresham to United States Ambassador Bayard at London, one dated July 13 last and the other bearing date of Dec 1 last. The first begins as follows:

"During your incumbency of the office of secretary of state you became acquainted with a long pending controversy between Great Britain and Venezuela concerning the boundary between that republic and British Guiana.

"The recourse to arbitration, first proposed in 1881, having been supported by your predecessors, was in turn advocated by you in a spirit of friendly regard for the two nations involved. In the meantime successive advances of British settlers in the region admittedly in dispute were followed by similar advances of Brit-ish colonial administration, contesting and supplanting Venezuelan claims to exercise authority therein. "Toward the end of 1887 the British territorial claim, which had, as it would seem, been silently increased by some 33,-000 square miles between 1885 and 1886, took unother comprehensive sweep west-ward to embrace the rich mining district of the Yurnari as far as Guacipati; and this called forth your instruction to Mr. Phelps of Feb. 17, 1888, respecting the widening pretensions of British Guiana to possess territory over which Venezuelan jurisdiction,' had never theretofore been disputed.

"Since then repeated efforts have been made by Venezuela, as a directly interested party, and by the United States, as the impartial friend of both countries, to bring about a resumption of diplomatic relations, which had been suspended in consequence of the dispute now under consideration. The proposition to resume such relations has, however, been intimately bound up with the ultimate question of arbitration. Until recently Venezuela has insisted upon joining to the agreement to arbitrate a stipulation for the restoration of the status quo of 1850 pending the proposed arbitration. But it seems that this condition is now abundoned. On the other hand, Great Britain has on several occasions demanded, as a preliminary to an understanding southing arbitration, that Venezuela shall definitely abandon all claim to a large part of the territory in to that portion only to which Great Britain. has more recently laid claim."

Secretary Gresham goes on to give at length a history of the various attempts that have been made by the United States and by Venezuela herself to bring about a settlement by arbitration of the dispute, bringing it down to Oct. 6, 1893, where it now rests, when he says:

"The president is inspired by a desire for a peaceable and honorable adjustment of the existing difficulties between an American state and a powerful trans-Atlantic nation, and would be glad to see the re-establishment of such diplomation relations between them as would promote that end. "I can discern but two equitable solutions to the present controversy. One is the arbitral determination of the rights of the disputants as a respective successor to the historical rights of Holland and Spain over the region in question. The other is to create a new boundary line, in accordance with the dictates of mutual expediency and consideration. The two governments having so far been unable to agree on a conventional line, the consistent and conspicuous advocacy by the United States and England of the principal of arbitration, and their recourse thereto in settlement of important questions arising between them, make such a mode of adjustment especially appropriate in the present instance, and this government willi gladly do what it can to further a determination in that sense."

In his letter of last December Secretary Gresham thus advises Mr. Bayard:

"I cannot believe her majesty's government will maintain that the validity of their claim to territory long in dispute between the two countries shall be conceded as a precedent to the arbitration of the question whether Venezuela is entitled to other territory which, until a very recent period, was never in doubt."

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE. The Bill to Pension Judges Passed by the House.

HARRISBURG, April 17 .- The judges' retirement bill passed finally in the house yesterday. The vote was 107 to 77. The passage of this bill escabil has a precedent in the lower branch of any legislature. For a generation efforts have bom made to get such a bill two 12h . Once or twice its advolates succeeded in the senate, but this is the first time they may ever passed the bill in the house. The site ess of the iriends of the bill is due principally to the activity of Speaker Walton, who has been energetic in its behalf. The measure provides for the retirement of sudges on full pay who have served twenty consecutive years on the bench, or thirty years altorether, and have reached the age of 70. The only justices who now come under the provisions of the act are Hare, Finletter and Allison, of Philadelphia and Pershing of Schuylkill.

A large number of bills passed finally. Among them were. Establishing a deparament of charities and correction; limiting the forietture of life insurance policles, increasing the salary of the superintendent of public printing from $2,000 to $2 500 annually; dividing cities into three classes with respect to their population; requiring safety guards on passenger ele-

Among the bills passed finally in the senate were: For the creation of the office of fire marshal in cities of the third class; authorizing the fish commissioners of Pennsylvania to appoint fish wardens; to fix the compensation of members of boards to examine candidates for appointments as inspectors, foremen and fire bosses in the anthracite and bituminous coal regions at $6 a day; to prohibit prize fighting and to regulate boxing with gloves; to create the office of county controller in counties containing 100,000 inhabitants and over, and to abolish the office of county auditor.

According to Senator Mullins "the whole trouble in the Lagislature has resulted from troubles growing out of the distribution of the patronage." Strange that reformers should concern themselves about such a base thing as spoils and wrangle over them like dogs over bones.

Train Robber Petry said after his capture, yesterday, that he would not have attempted to escape if his treatment at the Matteawan Asylum had not been so brutal that he felt it necessary to call attention to his! case. If that was his object, Perry's escape must rank as one of the greatest successes of the age, for during the past few days he has been the most thoroughly advertised man in the country.

It is estimated by the Bureau of Agriculture that the suspension of quarantine on Mexican sattle, imported for immediate slaughter, will result in fully 100,000 Mexican steers being sent over the border within the next few weeks. This ought to do away with the alleged shortage of live cattle and materially reduce prices, but it is doubtful if it will force the beef trust to loosen its grip on the American consumer.

The internal revenue officials at Washington are of the opinion that thousands of corporations and individuals have failed to make returns. The inconclusive decision of the Supreme Court is thought to have encouraged those who are disposed to resist the payment of the tax and has so clouded and befogged the whole matter that Treasury officials frankly say that the government's power to collect the tax has been greatly weakened.

Denton Birds Killed in a Cocking Main

A cocking main took place in this city, Monday, between Denton and Middletown birds. One Middletown bird killed four of the Denton cocks as fast as they were put in the pit. Two other Middletown birds then killed two Denton birds in quick succession. The match was witnessed by many spectators.

Tired Feeling

is a certain indication of impure and im- | Discharging a watery fluid, and the burnpoverished blood. If your blood could always be rich and pure, full of the red corpuscles upon which its vitality depends, you would never be weak, or Mervous! Boils, pumples, scrofuls, salt rheum, would never trouble you. But our mode of living, shut in all winter in poorly ventilated homes and shops, depletes the blood and there is loss of appetite, and weakness. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the standard remedy for this condition. It purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood, overcomes toat tired feeling, builds up the nerves and gives perfect health. Read this:

"Our daughter, Blanche, when four years of age had a humor break out on her hands and face, which our physician pronounced eczema. If the cold air reached her face or hands they would swell up, look almost purple, and headed blisters would form and break, ing and itching would drive her nearly wild. Unless we incased her little hands she would tear patches of skin from her face and hands. We tried many doctors and many remedies and at last gave the case up as hopeless. But our daughter Cora tried Hood's Sarsaparilla, to cure a scrofulous lump near the left breast which caused les much pain and after taking 4 bottles it disappeared. Blanche, who is now eleven. and spent seven years of suffering, so I concluded to give her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She took 5 bottles and her face is smooth and soft as a baby's, the color of a rose petal. Her hands are soft and white, where four months ago they were blue and red and calloused nearly like leather I cannot express my gratitude by pen or mouth. It seems a miracle and our friends are surprised." Mrs. ANNA L. CLARK, 401 E. 4th St., Duluth, Minn.

SMOKED ONCE TOO OFTEN.

An Aged Woman While Smoking Sets Fire to Her Clothing and is Fatally Burned.

A most distressing accident oecurred at Circleville, Monday, which resulted in the death, Tuesday night, of Mrs. Sarah J. Travis.

Mrs. Travis was seventy-five years old. Monday afternoon, while her son, Benj E. Travis, with whom she resided, was at the barn and the latter's wife and daughter were about their household affairs, they heard a noise in Mrs. Travis's room up stairs. They ran up at once and found the old lady enveloped in flames, which they finally succeeded in extinguishing, but not until Mrs. Travis had been terribly burned. Her grandcaughter in trying to extinguish the flames was also badly burned.

Mrs. Travis had become accustomed to smoking a pipe and undoubt edly while smoking dropped fire from her pipe into her lap, which set her clothing on fire. Her most seriious injuries were about the abdomen.

Mrs. Travis suffered terrible agonies until death relieved her sufferings. She was conscious part of the time, and in these intervals made no complaint of her own sufferings, but frequently gave expression to her sorrow over the injuries sustained by her granddaughter in trying to save her.

Mrs. Travis was born in the town of Walikill, June 17th, 1820. Her maiden name was Dulloway and she was a sister of the late James Dolloway, of that town. Her husband, Benjamin S. Travis, died eleven years

She is survived by the following hildren: Mr. Eliza A. Birdsell, of Goshen: Mary A., wife of Henry A. Shaw; Harriet J., wife of L. W. Cox; Benjamin E., Theodore and Emmett, of Circleville, and Lottie, wife Joseph Wood, of Newburgh.

The funeral will be held at the church at 1:30 p. m., to-morrow.

HYMENEAL.

Beattie-Weller,

Rev. Robert H. Beattle and Miss Carolyn Palen Weller were married at 6 o'clock, last evening, at the American Reformed Church, in Newburgh, of which the groom is pastor. The ceremony was performed by the groom's brother, Rev. Dr. Charles Beattle, of this city.

When the appointed hour arrived the ushers and brides maids advanced down the side aisles of the church to the front door, where they met the bride. The party then proceeded up the sisle to the sltar, where the bridegroom, the best man and the clergyman were waiting to receive them.

The bridesmaids were Miss Sarah Darrach, of New York city; Miss Margaret Beattle, of Middletown; Miss Margaret Cook. of Newburgh, and Miss Marion Bates, of Salisbury Mills. The bridesmaids all wore dresses of white organdie and carried bouquets of sweet peas.

The groom's best man was Professor Lewis D. Paton, of Hartford, Connecticut. The ushers were Dr. H. Beattie Brown, of Yonkers; R. The bride were a gown of white satin, trimmed with orange blossoms, and carried a cluster of lilles. After the ceremony a reception was given at the parsonage, which had been beautifully adorned with charming floral effects by Florist Peattle. A corps of waiters from Duncan's served refreshments. A large number of elegant and useful presents were received, among them a substantial purse made up by the ladies of the congregation, who contributed to the purse in addition to their individual gifts.

Crosby-Fullerton,

Miss Jeannie Fullerton and Mr. Jacob B. Crosby were united in marriage, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs, R. H. Dolson, 132 Academy avenue, Rev. Charles Beattie, D. D. pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, officiating. The ceremony was performed in the spacious parlor, which had been tastefully decorated for the joyous occasion with potted plants and flowers.

The happy couple were attended by a little niece of the bride, Flora Fullerton Heath, who was attired in a dress of pink henrietta.

The bride's dress was a skirt of grey crepon with silk waist, trimmed with chiffon and Russian lace. Her traveling dress was of light brown cloth, with velvet cape and hat to lace, the famous author of "Ben-Hun," that it is believed they may ere elect him chief of the libe A Wallace became afflicted with lung disease and went to Durango, Colo, for his health. He bought a pony and spent most of his time riding about the country. While on one of his journeys he stopped at Farmington, N. M., a town 60 miles south of Durango and located near the Navajo reservation, a tract of land 125 miles long and 90 miles wide Becoming interested in the red men, he penetrated to the very heart of their country despite the fact that at that time they were none too friendly toward white men He soon acquired a knowledge of the Navajo language, and the thrift and industry of the Indians led him to think very seriously of remaining with them He had many exciting experiences and narrowly escaped being killed on a number of occasions, but the majority of the Indians became very fond of him, and his popularity has steadily in-

One secret of his great success was the fact that he had considerable knowledge of medicine and treated the nick Indians He (stablished a ding store and soon became known to the Indians as the Big Medicine Man The white set-lers, however, cill him Natajo Bill During his residence with the Navajoes he has completely recovered his health and is so delighted with life on the reservation that he has no idea of ever leaving it. He takes pure in all the ceremonies of the tribe, is always consuited when any liave squaw or prpoose is such and is by far the most in fluential man among the Navajoes Some pessimists maintain that the only good Indian is a dead one, but the Navajoes are bardly within this category. They are hard workers and have maintained themselves without assistance from the government, it is said, for over 30 years. With a white chief to direct their affairs and counsel with them they will doubtless make quicker strides toward civilization.

THE LOVE OF CATO.

It Compels Him to Resort to Extreme Measures.

First came a color d man, who looked to be 60 years old and who was so humped over that he could hardly look up. He was followed by his wife, who wis very corpulent and slow moving and after them came a bright looking girl about to years old their daughter Libbie Twenty feet behind followed a young colored man named Cato, who was scuffing his feet in the dust and wearing a dejected look

The the had arrived at the depot to take the train to a station 13 miles away. They had an hour to want and as they sat down on the platform in the sun Cato came up and sat down on a box of bacon a few feet istant. The colored man employed about the station came up after a moment and looked the quarter over and asked "Uncle Billy, whir yo' all gwine to on de kivered kvars today " "Gwine up ter Rossville," replied the old man

"Who s dat nigger on de meat box, ober dar"

"Him's Cato Dade" "Boy, whar' yo' gwine to?" demanded the employee, as he pointed at Cato "No what

"Den what yer loafin 'round yere fur agin de principles ob de company"'
"Cato am in lub wid Labbie," explained the mother

"Hu! He's trash" exclaimed the girl as she tossed her head "Am yo' gwine to marry him""
"No, sah"

As she uttered these words Cato took from his pocket a vial full of red liquid and hastily removed the cork and swall lowed the contents. Fifteen seconds later he stretched out, quivered a few times, and apparently breathed his last. All were looking at him, but for same time no one said a word. Then the employee observed "Dat boy has dun gone and killed his-

There was a swamp opposite the depot, and the employee tugged and lifted and finally got the body on his back and almost to the fence Then & suddenly slipped off and got up and went away down the track at a gallop - Cato was not dead He wasn't even sleeping - He was only trying to move Libbie's heart. When he found he had tailed, he left. He was 200 feet away when the employee called to him "Yo' boy! It is Injurious Τо Stop Suddenly

And don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of the use of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with "BACO-CURO." It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded.

THE NEW OIL FEVER.

AFTER BEING LONG DORMANT LIKELY TO BREAK OUT AFRESH.

The Supply Last Year Fell Below the Demand by Several Million Barrely-New Wells Being Drilled-Standard Oil Buying Lands Largely.

Crude oil at $1.80 may mean a great deal to Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia It recalls the times when everybody who chanced to own a timber patch or a cow pasture in the oilfields was speculating on the chance of becoming a millionaire.

There was something which appealed to the imagination in the oil region 20 year ago. Fortunes were made and lost. Life was fast. Towns boomed and the traveling theatrical troop prospered.

The country looked crude and smelled of petroleum. It was not a desirable residence for the person who wished elegance and refined surroundings. But there was a fascination about the country and the people all the same.

The oil tever is perhaps to break out again after long being dormant. That will depend on the permanence of the causes which shall be found to have led to the pre-ent rise in price.

New webs may be drilled and some new territories opened up, but the real signification of the upward movement is to be found in the effect exerted on the oil producing industry as at present con-

F r several years the owner of oil lands has found in of little use to develop them. The refiners were able to command so abundant samplies without long transparation that the price of ernde ell was kept at an almost impos--able ligare for the producer.

Last year the total number of wells completed was only 2,248. The producrion in 12 ther - and mated to 45,000. 066 barrels. This supply aid not meet the domand by 6,500,0 6 barrels.

The natural re-wit of long depressed prices has come. American oil is better than Asiatu. The demand for export has been large without having becu for a long time is it by the producer or ch abling him to get better rate-.

The number of new wells in course of construction on April 1 is stated a-1,401—almost half the entire number drilled last year. New pipes are going down all through the Penusylvania and Ohio fields, and old wells are being torpedoed anew to increase their flow.

Many observers believe that this new activity is to continue, not with-tanding the natural tendency to return to los prices when an increased production has been stimulated.

But even if reaction follows with rea-onable quickness the boon to the oil regions is considerable. Reports show that within a few weeks the Standard Oil company has spent $3,000,000 purchasing lands from individual producers. The new wells will give profit to many drillers, who have had little prosperity of recent years. And most encouraging is the agreement of all the accounts that it is not the refiner or the speculator who is the gamer by the excitement, but the producer who can supply the legitimate demand for petroleum. - New York Tribune.

Mr. Brockway recognized William F. Field slaimed that the robbery of Mr. Ca_er was his first offense and escaped with a light sentence.

OBITUARY. Henry Litch

Henry Fitch, a promi ent and old resident of Jeisey City, N. J., died, yesterday morning. His wife, Harriet, died, on Monday. He was seventy-eight years old and she was seventy-five and they had been mar-ried fifty-six years. He was, in early life, principal of Farmers' Hall Academy at Goshev, which in its day was a famous educational institution. Later he became a civil engineer and was engaged in the construction of the Erie Railway, and was the road's first general ticket agent. He subsequently became a Wall street broker but retired from business in 1873. He had been a resident of Jersey City for forty years. His home was in that section of the Heights which was formerly Bergen township, and he served several terms in its Board of Education. When the township became the city of Bergen, he was Mayor. Two sons and a daughter sarvive him.

James Grey.

James Grey, the first Supervisor of the town of Chester, died at his home in that village, on Sunday morning, aged ninety-two years. He was born in the Sugar Loaf Valley. He was possessed of considerable property. Only one child survives him, and that is his daughter, Mrs. Edmund King, at whose home he died, and where he had resided for many years. THE QUIZZ CLUBS MOCK TRIAL

A Stolen Note Case Argued Before Three Lawyers Sitting as a General

The members of the Quizz Club held a mock trial at the offices of of the Board of Education for the Messrs. Vanamee, Watts & Vail, last funds recessary to earry on the pub- evening. The argument was a case on appeal before the General Term of the Supreme Court, with City Attorney John L. Wiggins as Presiding Judge, and Messrs. Herbert Gedney and John C. R Taylor as Associate Messrs. F. H. Waggoner and L. E. B Conkling appeared for the plaintiff, Samuel Smith, and P. A. Rorty and Russell Vernon appeared for the defendant, John Jones.

The point of law introduced was a very fine one. The defendant, John Jones, being desirous of raising $1,000, made a three months' note for that amount, drawing it to his own order and endorsing it. He placed it in a drawer in his deak, from which place it was stolen during the following night. The next day he missed it and made another note exactly like the first, which was discounted by the bank.

In due time the first note was presented for payment, it having been endorsed by several parties, finally coming into the hands of Samuel Smith.

Mr Jones refused to pay it upon the ground of fraud and no consideration, and further that the note had never been delivered, and therefore never had any inception as a note, but that the same had been stolen from him while in his possession, and Malone, Jr., and James Hynes, the he contended that the same was void Middletown burglars sentenced, last and of no effect as a note in the hands of any holder.

Smith claimed that he had paid full value for said note, had no knowledge that it was stolen, and had acted in good faith, and was therefore a bona fide holder Judgment was rendered against defendant Jones at the trial at Special Term, and Jones appealed from said judgment to the General Term. The Judges will hand in a decision in a few days.
